> [COMMUNICATED. THE CITY COUNCIL.

The City Council met Tuesday evening for the last time this summer and the finishing scenes were something fierce. To an onlooker it seemed that every one agreed to disagree. Consequently almost every one connected with this "time honored" body held a "bob tail" flush, with some outside cards to draw to. From the complex-ion of our Council, that body is as far off from an agreement now as they were this time one year ago, and it may be at ted positively that they never will agree. Consequently, rather than to adjourn for the summer, they should have adjourned uptil after next spring election. By that time some new blood may have been infused into that body so as "some" legislation may be had in a more desirable way other than a free entertainment for the benefit of the gallery, such as pleasant (?) remarks, back-biting and sofortb. If some stranger should have entered the Council Cnamber about 9:30 or Fuesday evening he should have thought a "prize fight" on hand instead of our City Fathers trying to make laws. Martineburg, W. Va., some few years ago had the difficulties to contend with, and I could name numerous other cities, and they sought and found the problem of success, viz; Elect an entirely new Council, in all its branches, and if that Council does not suit keep it up until he voters and the Councilmen are hand in hand, and then proper legislation will surely follow to the full satisfaction of all. In closing I will say that the young here is your chance.

THINGS HAVE CHANGED. We are informed by the "Business Men's League" that the census enumgraters have failed to increase the population of Alexandris. Therefore, our City Council has been compelled to iraw on Pennsylvania in order to make a quorum. The subscriber was a member of Council several years ago, representing the Second ward. But a colored mem-ber from the Fourth ward called the attention of Council to the fact that a 'gentleman" not a member of Counci vas voting on ordinances and re olu-The subscriber put on his hat and bade his old associates good night. Things have changed. Now when the Council desires to humiliate a Mayor r a Police Commissioner they draw on a foreign State for sufficient strength to do so. The question is 'Can a 'gentle-man' be a resident of Pennsylvania and young colored man of this city and grand-son of the late G. L. Seaton, died no desire to court the carrier to carrier t Hill, but we do claim that the majority ot good citizens expected the City Council to re-elect Mr. Lindsey because of the stand he took in the Spinks controversy. Such methods have revolutionized politics here in times past, and will again. Then we suggest that the grand jury be instructed by the Corporation Court to inquire into affairs at the jail end of the court. According to the worthy Mayor, things are a little crooked there. Let the good work go on.
